published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 12, to Saturday November 16, 1754.

Weſtminſter, November 14.

HIS Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, the Honourable Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Pleaſure that I meet you in Parliament, at a Time, when the late Elections have afforded my People an Opportunity of giving freſh Proofs of their Duty and Affection to my Perſon and Government, in the Choice of their Repreſentatives.

The general State of Affairs in Europe has received very little Alteration ſince your laſt Meeting. But I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that I have lately received the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances from my good Brother the King of Spain, of his firm Reſolution to cultivate Friendſhip and Confidence with me, with reciprocal Acts of Harmony and good Faith; and that he will perſevere in theſe Sentiments. It ſhall be my principal View, as well to ſtrengthen the Foundations, and ſecure the Duration of the General Peace, as to improve the preſent Advantages of it, for promoting the Trade of my good Subjects, and protecting thoſe Poſſeſſions, which make one great Source of our Commerce and Wealth.

The Plan formed by the laſt Parliament for appropriating the Forfeited Eſtates in the Highlands to the Publick Benefit, appears to be of ſuch National Importance, that I am perſuaded you will not omit any proper Opportunity of compleating it. Let me alſo recommend it to you, to make ſuch further Proviſions, as may be expedient for perpetuating the due Execution of the Laws, and the juſt Authority of my Government, in that Part of the United Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be prepared and laid before you. The Supplies which I have to aſk of you, are ſuch as ſhall be neceſſary for the ordinary Services; for the Execution of ſuch Treaties as have been communicated to you, for conſolidating and maintaining that Syſtem of Tranquility, which is my great Object; and, at the ſame Time, for ſecuring ourſelves againſt any Encroachments.

The gradual Reduction of the National Debt, which has been ſo wiſely and ſucceſsfully begun, will, I make no Doubt, have your ſerious and conſtant Attention.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is unneceſſary for me to uſe any Arguments to preſs upon you Unanimity, and Diſpatch in your Proceedings. I have had ſuch ample Experience of the Fidelity, Zeal, and good Diſpoſition of my Parliaments, during the Courſe of my Reign, that I truſt there is a mutual Confidence eſtabliſhed between us; the ſureſt Pledge of my own, and my People's Happineſs.
